EXTRAS even operate a full service travel agency. You may contact EXTRAS at 650/692-2903, Liz McDonnell, e-mail: lmdcdonnell@twiglobal.com

ON-SITE SUPPORT
TWI does not expect to have a representative on the floor at this event. It is of the utmost importance that the exhibitor telephone TWI Import Services at 702/691-9000 at least one full working day prior to the close of the show so that we may coordinate the outbound shipping details with them. Please provide us with the name and hotel telephone number of the exhibitor’s representative at the show so that we may contact them if necessary.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING MILITARY ITEMS, ENTRY REQUIREMENTS AND STATE DEPARTMENT LICENSING

US Customs and the Department of State, require military items and or items which can be used for military purposes, to be licensed prior to importation into the US. This statute includes exhibiting at trade show and exhibitions. As part of this, TWI has provided the following information to help you determine if merchandise that you are planning on shipping requires a license. TWI can apply for the DSP-61 License on your behalf, however, we need to comply fully with the following information.

In attending this show, US Customs will be enforcing the Homeland Security Measures. Following is the CFR 121 Munitions list. Any items listed within the Munitions list is subject to licensing. A comprehensive list can be found at www.pmdtc.org/reference.htm#ITAR. At this point, you will then go to section Part 121, where the entire Munitions List can be obtained, or if you are receiving this on-line, you may click on the links below. All Categories are subject to Department of State DSP 61 Temporary Import License. For the direct requirements of the Department of State, the munitions list can be emailed upon request in PDF format. For your guidance, the requirements to obtain a license are the responsibility of the exhibitor.
